JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Therapist

Employer/Agency: Jewish Family Service

Job Description: Jewish Family Service has an opening for an experienced master's or doctoral level mental health professional, with a strong preference for an LCSW. This therapist will work in a department that values teamwork, communication, and cooperation.

The successful applicant will be expected to carry an active caseload of primarily adults, with some adolescents, some seniors, and some individuals with medical or psychological disabilities. The clinician will be expected to create and provide educational training or support group sessions, possibly including Marriage 101 curriculum.

Jewish Family Service is a not-for-profit, United Way agency. We serve a wide cross-section of clients, but a working knowledge of, or willingness to learn about, the Jewish community is essential.

Qualifications: Experience providing psychotherapy to individuals and families. Licensed to practice in the state of Texas

Salary/Hours: 40 hours per week, including one evening, with occasional additional hours required during special situations or programming needs. Salary is commensurate with experience.
