JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant Professor of Social Work

Employer/Agency: Tarleton State University

Job Description: The Department of Social Work, Sociology and Criminal Justice at Tarleton State University invites applications for the position of a full-time tenure track assistant professor in the BSW social work program beginning Fall 2012. The position requires a Ph.D in Social Work from a CSWE-accredited graduate program and at least two years post master's social work practice experience. Excellent interpersonal skills, planning/organizing skills, and facilitation skills are required. Responsibilities include scholarly activities and research, student advising and committee service. The successful candidate will be expected to contribute to off-campus social work program instruction and development. Teaching experience in a BSW program is strongly preferred.

Qualifications: Ph.D in Social Work from a CSWE-accredited graduate program and at least two years post master's social work practice experience. Ability to teach across the social work curriculum is required. Excellent interpersonal skills, planning/organizing skills, and facilitation skills are required.

Generally, tenure-track faculty members in the rank of assistant professor shall hold the earned doctorate or other terminal degree approved by the University and recognized by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools as appropriate to the academic area they serve. In addition, they shall have demonstrated ability in the discipline and show clear promise of teaching excellence as evidenced in evaluation by peers, department head, and college dean; demonstrate continuing scholarly contribution beyond that required for completion of the terminal degree; and document yearly progress of professional achievement in teaching, scholarship, and service. Teachers of record must possess minimum Southern Association of Colleges and Schools credential standards which normally include a Master's degree with 18 graduate semester credit hours in the subject area or suitable approved justification.
