Job Title: Republican Outreach Manager

Employer/Agency: Planned Parenthood Federation of America (DC)

Job Description: The Republican Outreach Manager is responsible for developing constituency outreach programs at Planned Parenthood Federation of America focusing on the Republicans for Planned Parenthood program and broad constituency development. As a member of the Organizing & Electoral Campaigns Department, the Republican Outreach Manager bridges advocacy, communications, and policy strategies to broaden Planned Parenthood's network of support among this key constituency group to build grassroots capacity in these communities and engage their leadership in the women's health movement.

The Republican Outreach Manager works closely with the National Political Director, National Director of Organizing & Electoral Campaigns and Director of Field & Electoral Operations to develop and lead outreach efforts to broaden our constituency support and strengthen our Republicans for Planned Parenthood program both with the National Office and its Affiliates.

Functions of the role include:

Integrating the Republican outreach programs throughout Planned Parenthood's public policy work, supporting internal Planned Parenthood constituency workgroups, creating advocacy toolkits specific to the Republican community, establishing a presence at national conferences, and conducting trainings to educate the constituency on a pro-choice and pro-family planning agenda.

This position provides assistance, encouragement and information to affiliates to support their efforts to mobilize and enhance their outreach efforts to the Republican community and build their own Republicans for Planned Parenthood programs.

Qualifications:

Bachelor's degree required. 5-7 years experience and proven track record of success in organizing communities and individuals around an issue or political party and constituent outreach. Prior experience with electoral campaigns and candidate recruitment and fundraising is preferred. Prior experience building coalitions and relationships with Republican constituency groups is a plus. Strength in multi-tasking, goal-setting and workload prioritization. Self-starter who takes initiative but is also a team player. Superior verbal and written communications skills. Gravitas paired with professional integrity and ambition to effectively represent and promote PPFA externally at the highest levels. Unflinching commitment to exceptional work product. Knowledge of diverse groups, working with a multicultural workforce and sensitivity and appreciation to cultural differences is required.
