| Job Title | Assistant Professor |
| Employer/ Agency | University of Wyoming |
| Job Description | The University of Wyoming's (UW) Division of Social Work invites applications for a tenure-track position at the level of Assistant Professor. Persons with expertise in generalist and advanced generalist practice, research methods and community practice are especially encouraged to apply. The Division of Social Work has a strong record of research and scholarship including collaborative research with governmental organizations and other divisions housed in the College of Health Sciences. The Division offers a Generalist BSW program and an Advanced Generalist MSW program enrolling approximately 100 undergraduate and 50 graduate students. The University and the Division of Social Work maintain outreach centers across Wyoming providing excellent opportunities for community practice and research. The MSW program uses the Outreach Distance Education Network to deliver portions of the curriculum statewide. The University and the Division also provide resources for new faculty, including start-up funding, subject to available resources. The University of Wyoming is the state's only public provider of baccalaureate and graduate education and is a Carnegie research-doctoral extensive institution. UW combines major university benefits and small school advantages. With a student enrollment of about 13,000, the UW main campus is located in the beautiful Rocky Mountains, 50 miles from Cheyenne, two hours from Denver, and two hours from Steamboat Springs and other outdoor leisure activities. Easy access to the nearby Snowy Range of the Rockies provides numerous opportunities for summer and winter activities. Plenty of sunshine and year-round beauty complement the city of Laramie (pop. 30,000) making it a terrific place to live and work. |
| Qualifications | Required qualifications include: Earned doctorate in social work or closely related field or interdisciplinary fields (doctorate must be successfully defended by June 30, 2014); MSW from a CSWE accredited program or equivalency, as determined by CSWE; prior research experience; at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Preferred qualifications include: Established college teaching record with ability to teach across curriculum at BSW and MSW levels; expertise in working with diverse and rural populations; experience using distance education technology; experience in a generalist/ advanced generalist social work program; and demonstrated research competence with publication record. |
