

Social Work Faculty Position: West Texas A&M University.
Start Date: August, 2012

West Texas A&M University is seeking a faculty member to join our Social Work program. The accredited Bachelors program has approximately 150 students and our MSSW program, in candidacy, has 40 new students every Fall semester.

Required qualifications:

Doctoral degree in Social Work or a related field;

A MSW and a minimum of two years of post-MSW practice experience;

Ability to teach across the generalist social work curriculum in both programs.

This 9-month tenure-track position completes the eight-faculty social work program, which is housed in the Department of Psychology, Sociology and Social Work. The Social Work program actively seeks to engage students in the community at every level of the educational process. Summer teaching is a possibility. Other requirements outside of teaching responsibilities include community involvement and scholarly activity.

Competitive salary commensurate with experience and generous benefits are provided.

The 15 TOP REASONS to consider our program:

1. No traffic!
2. Cost of living is low!
3. The second largest canyon in the United States, Palo Duro Canyon, is here!
4. Collegial faculty (okay - almost. . .) :-)
5. Great students!
6. Growing diversity.
7. WTFCS
8. The largest natural history museum in Texas is located on campus!
9. A symphony, opera, community theater, ballet, and traveling Broadway productions!
10. Cadillac Ranch, the Big Texan, and the outdoor musical, TEXAS!
11. Love working with first generation students? We've got 'em!
12. Emphasis on excellence in teaching.
13. We have a good mascot - a buffalo! (GO BUFFS!)
14. Great sports events!
15. World class broadcasting, theater, music and art programs. . .which means lots of opportunities for plays, musical theater, orchestra, symphony, etc. RIGHT HERE ON CAMPUS!
