

Do you need a full-time job when you graduate?

Baylor's Texas Hunger Initiative is looking to fill full-time, year-long AmeriCorps VISTA positions beginning SUMMER of 2014 in the following cities: Amarillo, Austin, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, McAllen, San Angelo, San Antonio, Tyler and Waco.

WHY SHOULD YOU APPLY?

1 Texas Hunger Initiative makes a difference

"THI in the next few years will have amassed a rich collection of evidence-based data providing its legitimacy as a universal model to end hunger...making Baylor the premier university-based poverty research center in the country." Baylor Magazine*

2 Benefits of serving WITH AmeriCorps VISTA AT THI

AmeriCorps VISTA

- > Pays your monthly stipend to work at THI
- > $5,645 education award (for federal loans) or $1,500 End-of-Service stipend
- > Federal employment non-competitive eligibility
- > Nationally recognized program of service

Texas Hunger Initiative

- > Baylor Auxillary Staff status
- > Being a part of creating a universal model to end hunger in Texas
- > Learn about community organizing
- > Great nonpro it work experience

3 Serving as an AmeriCorps VISTA opens doors

- > You'll have a pool of resources for networking—at Baylor, anti-hunger organizations across the state, national anti-poverty organizations, federal government jobs and more.
- > You'll have an edge on graduate school applications and résumés—your year of service with AmeriCorps VISTA is recognized.

APPLY NOW: Deadline April 11

Full job descriptions and applications available online: texashunger.org