

Assistant Professor of Social Work/Field Director

The Department of Social Work, Sociology and Anthropology at Juniata College, a highly ranked, national liberal arts college of 1,500 students located in the scenic Allegheny Mountains of central Pennsylvania, seeks candidates for an up to three year fixed term Assistant Professor position, beginning August, 2012. This position includes the designation of Field Director and is ideal for the person who is interested in both field education and the chance to teach a variety of courses in social work and sociology. The Department of Social Work has been accredited by CSWE since 1984, and typically graduates 6-8 students per year. Further information about the department can be found at <http://departments.juniata.edu/sociology>.

Juniata and the Social Work Program seek applications from diverse candidates and from candidates who support diversity.

Requirements include an MSW from a CSWE accredited program; 2 years post-Master's social work experience; and eligibility for licensure in Pennsylvania. Experience teaching in an undergraduate CSWE accredited program, experience as a field instructor for social work students or as an agency supervisor highly desirable. Of particular interest are candidates who have experience teaching community practice and social problems and social welfare.

The position may convert to a tenure track position in the future; therefore, appropriate scholarship, research and college service are encouraged. Participation in student advising is required.

Applicants must submit 1) a brief statement of teaching experience, philosophy, and interests; 2) a curriculum vitae; 3) undergraduate and graduate academic transcripts; and 4) three letters of recommendation. All materials should be addressed to Gail Leiby Ulrich, Director of Human Resources, Juniata College, 1700 Moore Street, Box B, Huntingdon PA 16652. Review of applications will begin on Nov. 10 and continue until the position is filled. It is the policy of Juniata College to conduct background checks.

Juniata College will take positive steps to enhance the ethnic and gender diversity on its campus. The College commits to this policy not only because of legal obligations, but because it believes that such practices are basic to human dignity.