JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Case Manager-Burress

Employer/ Agency: AIDS Foundation Houston, Inc.

Job Description: This position is primarily responsible for linking residents to needed social services in a timely and coordinated manner utilizing public, private, and community resources to decrease service gaps, and removing barriers for individuals living with HIV infection. The Case Manager works directly with residents and their families to develop and implement an assessment plan designed to increase their skills and/or income, promote greater self-determination and to help residents maintain permanent housing. This will be accomplished by the coordination of social, financial, medical and personal service network resources to ensure the needs are met and the consequences of living with the disease are alleviated. Case Management is a client-centered service addressing a comprehensive range of client needs based on psychological assessment and resulting in an individualized care plan.

For complete job description, please see our website at www.AIDShelp.org.

Qualifications: A minimum of 2 years working with homeless families required. Knowledge of HIV/AIDS, community resources and social services a must. Experience and knowledge with mental health and substance abuse issues required. Bilingual in English and Spanish a plus
