

Date Posted: 11/13/12

University of Houston
Graduate College of Social Work

JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant Professor

Employer/Agency: Indiana University Northwest

Job Description: Applications are invited for two tenure-track social work faculty positions in the Division of Social Work on the Indiana University Northwest campus available August, 2013. The IUSSW-Indiana University Northwest campus currently offers a BSW program and a part-time evening MSW Program with concentrations in Mental Health and Addictions, Health, and School Social Work.

One of eight campuses of Indiana University, IU Northwest is located in metropolitan Northwest Indiana, approximately 30 miles southeast of Chicago and 10 miles from the Indiana Dunes National Lakeshore. The campus has a diverse student population of over 6,000 students and offers Associate, Baccalaureate and Master degrees in a variety of undergraduate and graduate programs in arts and sciences, business and economics, education, nursing and health professions; public and environmental affairs, and social work.

Responsibilities include teaching both MSW and BSW courses in the curriculum areas of human behavior and the social environment, direct, and policy practice. Faculty must also conduct research in specialty areas, provide academic and professional advising services to students, and be an active member of the academic and professional community.

Qualifications: Essential qualifications include: an earned doctorate in social work or a closely related field (ABD will be considered if degree awarded prior to August, 2013); an MSW degree from a CSWE accredited program; three (3) years of post Master's practice experience; teaching experience in undergraduate or graduate social work education; a well articulated research and publication agenda; demonstrated potential to acquire external funding to support and enhance scholarly activities; and demonstrated interest in online and distance education delivery methods. Preference will be given to applicants who have two or more years teaching experience in both undergraduate and graduate social work education, have experience in online and distance education delivery methods, and a strong commitment to working with diverse populations. Preference will also be given to candidates who demonstrate research interests in health, mental health and addictions, or school social work.

Salary/Hours: DOE

Employer/Agency: Indiana University Northwest
City, State, Zip: Gary, IN

Application Method: Application materials can be sent electronically as pdf files to Dr. Darlene Lynch at darlynch@iun.edu and should include a letter of application detailing qualifications for this position, curriculum vitae, one writing samples of recent scholarly work, and three letters of reference that address teaching and research competencies. Official transcripts of the successful candidate will be required prior to appointment. Review of applications will begin in November of 2012 and will continue until the position is filled.

Opening Date: August 2012

If your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@sw.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you