Graduate College of Social Work
JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant Professor

Employer/Agency: University of North Dakota

Job Description: The Department of Social Work at the University of North Dakota invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor beginning Fall 2013. This is a nine month, tenure track academic position. The Department of Social Work offers a CSWE accredited BSSW program and a CSWE accredited MSW program with an Advanced Generalist concentration. We seek a candidate who demonstrates the capacity to provide generalist education across the BSSW and MSW sequence. The successful candidate will be expected to engage in research and to perform services for the profession, university and community.

Qualifications: Master of Social Work (MSW) from a Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) accredited program and a doctorate in social work or related field; a minimum of two years post-master's professional social work practice experience is also required. The ideal candidate will have a record of effective teaching; evidence of research, publications or other scholarly activities appropriate for social work educators; a demonstrated commitment to diversity, inclusive and equal opportunity and/or experience working with diverse populations; and highly developed communication skills.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: The ideal candidate will possess the ability to teach across BSSW and MSW programs with demonstrated expertise in practice and policy areas; a record of service to the profession, university and community with demonstrated commitment to social justice and human rights; familiarity with generalist and advanced generalist social work education; demonstrated potential to generate external research funding; demonstrated evidence of university teaching experience with diverse populations, in particular, American Indian; documented ability to work as an effective team member and present a broad perspective on social work education that transcends geographical borders.
