

Job Title	Faculty Position
Employer/ Agency	Texas State University
Job Description	Texas State School of Social Work is seeking well-qualified faculty candidates who hold the MSW and Ph.D. and who have at least two years of practice experience. Candidates must be willing to teach evening classes. Texas State School of Social work offers the BSW and MSW degrees, both of which are fully accredited. The School has about 600 students, the majority of whom are graduate students. Texas State School of Social Work, located in excellent facilities and administratively part of the College of Applied Arts, is a vibrant organization which uses cutting-edge technological teaching enhancements to provide up-to-date, vigorous course content and engaging learning opportunities. In fact, Texas State School of Social Work offers its MSW on-line as well as in campus. Position applicants should be comfortable with learning and using technology in teaching. Research opportunities abound through our numerous externally-funded projects! Texas State University is a Hispanic-Serving Institute and an Emerging Research Institute, and both these designations increase grant and research potential. With this position, the School will have 25 full-time faculty members. Faculty of color make up about 35% of the faculty cohort. Most faculty hold the doctorate and all are licensed in good standing. The School's student body is also about 35% students of color. The School's mission is to prepare students to serve the most vulnerable populations who are usually served by public agencies. Texas State University, dating from 1899, has a charming, picturesque campus in San Marcos, a community of over 50,000 people. Situated in the lovely Texas Hill Country mid-way between San Antonio and Austin, its location and ambiance combines the best of small-town easy living and metropolitan convenience. Texas State's commitment to academic excellence gives the University its competitive edge! One of the largest universities in the state, Texas State's admission standards are high, and its faculty is dedicated to excellent education. Texas State's 35,000 students choose from 100 undergraduate, 88 masters, and 12 doctoral degree programs offered by 10 colleges. Over 35% of the student body come from ethnic minority groups, and Texas State is one of the top 20 producers of Hispanic baccalaureate graduates in the nation. It is an equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution with excellent benefits and competitive salaries.
Salary/Hours	DOE
City, State, Zip	San Marcos, TX
Application Method	For further information, contact: Dr. Dorinda Noble (dn12@txstate.edu) or Dr. Nancy Chavkin (nc02@txstate.edu) School of Social Work Texas State University 601 University Drive San Marcos, TX 78666-4616 512.245.2592 www.socialwork.txstate.edu/ Job posting # 2014-56 , Assistant Professor http://www.txstate.edu/academicaffairs/FacultyEmp/faculty_employment.htm
Opening Date	Fall 2014

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.