

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
COLLEGE OF ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI

The School of Social Work at the University of Cincinnati invites applications for an open rank (Assistant, Associate, Full Professor) and for Assistant Professor tenure-track faculty position for Fall Semester 2012.

The School is part of the College of Allied Health Sciences at the UC Academic Health Center. We anticipate opportunities for interdisciplinary research and teaching. UC is ranked one of America's top 25 public research universities. It is an urban university of 13 colleges, 300 plus degree programs and a diverse student body of more than 39,000. The School of Social Work offers BSW and MSW degrees to more than 500 students. Programs include Child Welfare IV-E at the BSW and MSW levels; a joint MSW/JD program; and School Social Worker certification at the MSW level.

Min. Quals.: Candidates must have an MSW degree, a minimum of 2 years post-MSW practice experience, and an earned doctorate in Social Work or Social Welfare. These positions require a commitment to excellence in teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, and in research and scholarly publication.

Ideal Qualifications: To be considered for the rank of Associate or Full Professor, candidates must have an extensive record of scholarship and research funding.

Submit your online application at www.jobsatuc.com reference numbers 211UC1552 (Open rank posting) or 211UC1554 (Assistant Professor posting). Application requirements include: letter of application, CV, three professional references, statement of research agenda, and samples of published/written materials.

The University of Cincinnati is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. UC is a smoke-free work environment.