Job Title: Faculty Positions

Employer/Agency: Boston College

Job Description: Professor And Associate Dean For Research
The Boston College Graduate School of Social Work invites nominations and applications for the position of Professor and Associate Dean for Research.

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor

Migration, Immigration, & Global Studies

The Boston College Graduate School of Social Work is looking for a tenure-track faculty member to enhance its focus on migration, immigration, and global studies. The faculty hire will teach students respectful and effective ways of working with immigrant and refugee populations both domestically and abroad. He/she will engage in an active research agenda analyzing appropriate services and delivery systems that empower people who migrate or seek refuge due to a variety of reasons.

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor

Social innovation

The Boston College Graduate School of Social Work has created a tenure-track faculty position for its new macro program focused on Social Innovation + Leadership (SIL). The faculty hire will teach one or more of the required and/or elective courses including classes on leadership, financial management and resource development, social innovation, social enterprise, and organizational capacity building for social innovation.

Qualifications: Professor And Associate Dean For Research

The successful candidate will mentor faculty in producing quality scholarly work; identify funding opportunities from a range of potential sponsors; and assist faculty in developing a record of securing external sponsorship for scholarly work.

We are looking for a distinguished scholar with expertise primarily in health or mental health research with a strong record of publications and ongoing external funding. We seek candidates with backgrounds in social work, community health, public health, health services research, nursing, psychiatry, or a social behavioral academic discipline. Strong interpersonal skills are required in order to create a collegial environment that promotes and rewards scholarly work.

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor

Migration, Immigration, & Global Studies

The faculty hire will have an opportunity to join the School's Immigrant Integration Lab (IIL) which explores the intersection of social work, social policy, and immigrant inclusion. Cross-cultural expertise, international experience, and foreign language fluency are desirable.

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor

Social innovation

The faculty hire will be invited to join the leadership team for the Center for Social Innovation (CSI) which provides information and resources to existing social service agencies and conducts research on innovation at such agencies. Ideal candidates will have teaching and research expertise in social and organizational change and experience with innovation initiatives.
