

Job Title	Assistant Professor (2 positions)
Employer/ Agency	University of Texas San Antonio
Job Description	The Department of Social Work at The University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) seeks applicants for two faculty positions at the Assistant Professor level to begin in Fall 2014. UTSA, one of the fastest growing public universities in Texas, is gaining momentum in its quest to become the state's next premier Tier 1 university. It serves the San Antonio metropolitan area, the seventh largest U.S. city, and the broader region of South Texas through programs and services offered from its three campuses. More than 57% of UTSA's students come from groups underrepresented in higher education. Many students are the first in their families to attend a college or university. The UTSA Department of Social Work, the first publicly funded graduate social work program in San Antonio, began in 2005 with 17 MSW students; current MSW student enrollment is more than 200. Capitalizing on its location in San Antonio and its commitment to South Texas, the Program offers a single concentration in cultural competence. The Program's mission is to develop socially responsible, culturally competent social work professionals within a transformative and global context. The UTSA MSW Program was accredited by the Council on Social Work Education in 2008. The vast majority of our students are working professionals with considerable diversity in life experience and ideas. More details about the Program can be found at http://copp.utsa.edu/
Qualifications	Required qualifications for applicants: 1) a Ph.D. in Social Work or a closely related discipline; 2) a MSW from a CSWE accredited program; 3) a demonstrated commitment to cultural competence and working with diverse populations; and 4) strong potential in external fund development, research and scholarship. Preferred applicant qualifications include at least two years post-MSW practice experience. Candidates applying at the assistant rank who are currently ABD will be considered.
