

Job Title	Assistant Professor-Migration Research
Employer/ Agency	Boston College
Job Description	The Boston College Graduate School of Social Work is looking for a tenure-track faculty member to enhance its focus on migration. Our School is committed to interdisciplinary approaches to the study of migration, and it is ranked as one of the top social programs in the country. We seek candidates who are engaged in an active interdisciplinary research agenda examining the social determinants of disparities among immigrant and refugee populations domestically and abroad. The ideal candidate will be able to teach graduate students respectful and effective ways of working with immigrant populations globally. In addition the faculty hire will have an opportunity to join the School's unique Immigration Integration Lab (ILL) which explores the intersection of social work, social policy and immigrant inclusion. We therefore welcome candidates with expertise in US Immigration, integration and related policies.
Qualifications	Cross-cultural expertise, international experience, and foreign fluency are desirable. Candidates must possess a commitment to teaching, research, and scholarly publication, including capacity for obtaining external funding. Preference will be given to candidates who hold an MSW and PhD in Social Work or related discipline.
