

Job Title	Faculty Position
Employer/ Agency	Arizona State University
Job Description	Applications are invited for a tenure track Assistant Professor position in Tucson to start Fall, 2014. Expertise in health and health disparities, behavioral health, children and families, or macro practice is preferred, and experience in working with culturally diverse populations is especially valued. Interest in immigration and border issues, and related social problems, also is desirable.
Qualifications	Candidates must have an earned doctorate in social work or a related field by the starting date of appointment. An MSW is preferred. A promising scholarly research agenda that has the potential for external funding to support the program of research is essential, as is evidence of ability or potential for teaching at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Ability to teach social work practice courses is highly valued.
Salary/Hours	DOE
City, State, Zip	Phoenix, AZ
Application Method	Early application is advised. Candidates must submit a curriculum vitae, names and addresses of three professional references, a statement of research agenda and teaching interests, teaching evaluations (if available), and no more than two samples of written/published material. Please indicate if you are interested in positions in Phoenix, Tucson, or either location. Send applications and address inquiries to: Steve Anderson, Director School of Social Work College of Public Programs Arizona State University MC 3920, 411 North Central Ave, Suite 800 Phoenix, AZ 85004-0689 or Applications may be sent electronically to sswfacultysearch@asu.edu
Opening Date	Fall 2014

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.