| Job Description | The Indiana University School of Social Work invites applications for two tenure-track positions at the assistant or associate professor level. The positions are available on the South Bend campus and will begin August, 2014. Both of the positions are ten-month appointments with responsibility for teaching, research, and service. Successful candidates will be expected to teach across the BSW and MSW curricula as well as occasional classes in IU-partner campus locations. |
| Qualifications | Essential qualifications include an earned doctorate in social work or a related field, an MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program, and at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Successful candidates should also have a well-articulated research and publication agenda as well as demonstrated interest in seeking external grants to support scholarly activities. Candidates for the title of Associate Professor must demonstrate a history of external grants and scholarly publications to merit appointment at this level. For both positions, preference will be given to applicants who demonstrate teaching experience at the MSW and/or BSW level, including experience teaching in a generalist or foundation curriculum, and have demonstrated interest in online and distance education delivery methods. |
