

Job Title	Faculty Opening
Employer/ Agency	Wright State University
Job Description	The Department of Social Work at Wright State University seeks candidates for the position of full-time, tenure track, Assistant Professor beginning August 16, 2014. We are a growing department with over 200 undergraduate majors and over 50 students in the newly formed Greater Miami Valley Joint MASW program with Miami University of Ohio. We have a diverse faculty who are actively involved in teaching, research, and community service. The BASW program has been accredited with CSWE since 1974 and the MASW program is in candidacy with CSWE. Students can pursue a Gerontology Certificate program or a federally funded child welfare training program. Wright State is a medium sized, state-supported university (over 16,000 students) in southwestern Ohio, located in suburban Dayton and near Columbus and Cincinnati.
Qualifications	Responsibilities include teaching and advising primarily at the graduate level, conducting ongoing research, and participating in department, college, university, and community service activities. Priority for the current vacancy is teaching in the graduate program and teaching and research experience in gerontology, macro and/or advanced generalist practice. The appointment covers a 9 month period with the opportunity to teach additional courses during the summer. Required qualifications are: Ph.D. in Social Work or related field or ABD in Social Work with the successful completion of the PhD by August 15, 2014. The PhD in social work is preferred. Persons must have a master's degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited program and at least two years post-baccalaureate or post-master's degree social work practice experience. Preferred qualifications are: evidence of successful teaching, especially at the graduate level, and published peer-reviewed research, especially in gerontology, macro and/or advanced generalist practice. Interested candidates are encouraged and supported to become an advocate for inclusion and social change on campus and in the community.
Salary/Hours	DOE
City, State, Zip	Dayton, OH
Application Method	Candidates are required to provide a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, and a statement summarizing their approach to teaching, service, and research including their support of diversity activities at other institutions. Syllabi of courses previously taught, along with student and/or peer evaluations of teaching are welcomed. Evidence of scholarship is also welcomed. First consideration will be given to applications received by November 15, 2013. Applications will be considered until the position is filled. Submit applications online to https://jobs.wright.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind=51297 . For information about Wright State University, visit the WSU website at www.wright.edu and the social work website at www.wright.edu/cola/Dept/social_work . WSU is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Opening Date	Fall 2014

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.