

Job Title	Director
Employer/ Agency	Lewis Clark State College
Job Description	Lewis Clark State College is now hiring for a Director for their Social Work Program. This CSWE accredited Bachelor of Social Work Program serves two sites, Lewiston and Coeur d'Alene. The Director is responsible for program oversight at each location. The social work program is administratively located in the Division of Social Sciences with an enrollment of over 200 social work majors. Our program embraces the other social sciences as part of the social work endeavor. This position provides the opportunity for the successful candidate to do the same. Lewis-Clark State College is a dynamic four-year institution of 4200 students located in scenic North Central Idaho at the confluence of the Snake and Clearwater rivers. The Lewiston-Clarkston (WA) valley is a regional center of more than 50,000 people near the Nez Perce Indian Reservation. The college prides itself on its student-centered philosophy, innovative instruction, and outreach efforts.
