

Two Faculty Positions

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville invites applications for two Assistant Professor tenure track appointments in the Department of Social Work beginning August 15, 2012. These faculty positions involve teaching in BSW and MSW programs, service and scholarship. Ability to teach in a variety of curricular areas is important, while experience teaching research methods and child and family will be a plus. Applicants should possess an MSW plus two years post-MSW practice experience and a PhD (ABD will be considered). SIUE is proud of its instructional emphasis with faculty development tailored to a teacher/scholar model.

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, recently identified by U.S. News and World Report as an "up and coming" mid-sized institution, is located on a forested 2600 acre campus with numerous walking and biking trails. Just 25 minutes from downtown St. Louis is a world renowned symphony, theaters, art museums, botanical gardens, and major league sports franchises that offer nearby entertainment whether you chose beautiful historic neighborhoods, newer loft districts in the city or any of a number of smaller surrounding rural settings.

Send curriculum vita, application letter, graduate transcripts and three references to the Chair of Recruitment, c/o Judy Zimmerman, SIUE Department of Social Work, Box 1450, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Edwardsville, IL 62026-1450. Application review will begin in October 2011 and continue until the positions are filled. As an affirmative action employer SIUE offers an equal opportunity without regard to race, color, creed or religion, age, sex, national origin, or disability. SIUE is a state University so that benefits under state sponsored plans may not be available to holders of F1 or J1 visas.
