JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant Professor

Employer/Agency: Elizabethtown College

Job Description: Elizabethtown College invites applications for a full-time tenure track position in Social Work starting August 2013. The successful candidate will be able to teach micro practice and cultural diversity, as well as serve as field liaison. This position may assume responsibility of Field Director. Additional responsibilities include academic advising of students, sharing in committee work, and professional development. A background that suggests the ability to mentor and challenge students in a way that inspires is desired. The department seeks candidates with dynamic teaching skills who are able to excite students about the profession as well as contribute to the knowledge base of the profession and who can contribute in meaningful ways to the diversity and intercultural goals of the College. Of particular interest are candidates whose scholarship examines issues related to race and ethnicity. The college follows the Teacher-Scholar model and course workload is three 4-credit courses per semester.

Qualifications: Ph.D. in Social Work is preferred; however, advanced ABDs or those with a PhD in a closely affiliated field will be considered. An MSW from a CSWE-accredited institution is required, with at least 2 years of post-MSW clinical practice experience. Candidates must have teaching experience in higher education and show evidence of a research agenda. Finalists will be required to submit original transcripts and copies of recent course evaluations.
