JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant Professor

Employer/Agency: The University of Oklahoma School of Social Work

Job Description: The University of Oklahoma Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work invites nominations and applications for two 9-month faculty tenure track positions at the rank of Assistant Professor. The University of Oklahoma Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work offers both undergraduate and graduate programs accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work advances relevant and high quality knowledge and values of social work practice useful in preparing competent social workers who can elevate the status of people, populations or communities that experience considerable vulnerability and injustice within Oklahoma and the broader society. The positions are located at the University of Oklahoma in Norman, Oklahoma. As of July 2011 Anne and Henry Zarrow Hall has become the new home of the Anne and Henry Zarrow School of Social Work. Zarrow Hall provides over 30,000 square feet of instructional and administrative space for the School. The new building features the latest in instructional technology melded with high art - including technology for distance education, the incorporation of clinical suites for instruction in practice skills, and a Community Room which brings the School in close contact with the university and professional communities it serves. Further information can be found on the School's web site: <http://socialwork.ou.edu>

Qualifications: Requirements include an MSW and an earned doctorate, or completion of degree by August 2013 in social work or in a related discipline.

Preference will be given to candidates with a minimum of two years full-time post master's practice experience and teaching interest/experience in two or more of the following: Human Behavior, Diversity, Administrative and Community Practice, or Advanced Direct Practice
