University of Houston
Graduate College of Social Work
JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Associate/Assistant Professor (2 positions)

Employer/Agency: Syracuse University

Job Description: The School of Social Work invites applications for two tenure-track positions at the assistant/associate professor level. The school, the college, and the university are strongly committed to working with populations from diverse backgrounds, to community engagement, and to research that advances social work practice and individual and community well-being. Syracuse University, a Research Intensive institution, has 18,000 students located in a vibrant, progressive and family-friendly city. The School of Social Work enrolls approximately 160 BSW and 210 MSW students in CSWE-accredited curricula.

The School's diverse and collegial faculty includes 11 tenure-track members with national reputations in research areas including: family, youth and school violence; child welfare, kinship and foster care; aging, social security, caregiver support and intergenerational issues; practice evaluation; disability issues; addictions; trauma, veterans; and culturally-competent practice. The School has a proud legacy of over 50 years building strong relationships with community agencies and working collaboratively with many of the institutes and centers across the campus in particular, the Center on Human Policy, Law, and Disability Studies, the Burton Blatt Institute, Institute on Veterans Affairs, and the Aging Studies Institute. More information about the Syracuse University School of Social Work can be found at <http://socialwork.syr.edu>.

Qualifications: Individuals are sought who can teach courses in the areas of generalist and/or advanced clinical practice, preferably with an emphasis in evidence-based social work practice in mental health and/or child welfare. In addition, the ability to provide instruction in HBSE will be valued. Candidates should have a defined research agenda, and must have a MSW, at least two years of post-MSW practice experience, and a doctorate completed prior to appointment.
