JOB OPPORTUNITY POSTING

Job Title: Assistant/ Associate Professor

Employer/Agency: Wartburg College

Job Description: Wartburg College invites applications for a full-time tenure-track faculty position at the rank of assistant or associate professor beginning in September, 2013. This position teaches six courses over a nine-month academic year and serves as the Department's Coordinator of Field Education. Some summer work (with compensation) is necessary for the administration of field education. Course assignments include HBSE with groups/organizations, social work practice with individuals/families (clinical skills), social work practice in mental health, field placement supervision, and co-leadership of the senior capstone seminar. Full participation in on-going curriculum development and assessment is essential. Regular contributions to the College's program of essential (general) education are expected, with a particular focus on human diversity. Other responsibilities include student advising and both institutional and community service.

Wartburg College is a selective four-year liberal arts college of the Lutheran Church (ELCA), internationally recognized for community engagement. We offer more than 50 academic majors and pre-professional and certificate programs leading to a bachelor's degree. The Wartburg Community is committed to creating and maintaining a mutually respectful environment that recognizes and celebrates diversity among all students, faculty and staff. As an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution, Wartburg College actively seeks applications from women and members of ethnic and minority groups. Bremer and neighboring Black Hawk (population 131,600) counties offer abundant opportunities for research in urban/ rural social work with diverse populations.

The College offers a BA degree in social work through a generalist program that is firmly imbedded in a liberal arts curriculum. The social work program serves approximately 70 students with three full-time faculty and has been CSWE-accredited since 1976.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess an MSW degree with at least three years post-graduate professional experience, preferably in a clinical setting with individuals and families. Promise of continued scholarly activity and support for the mission of the College and its liberal arts tradition are required. A doctorate in social work or related field and prior undergraduate teaching experience are highly desirable. A licensed or license-eligible clinical social worker is preferred. Prior experience in obtaining external funding and a willingness to seek external funding while at Wartburg is desirable. A record of successful work with diverse populations and individuals, or linguistic competence in Spanish or Bosnian, or comfort in African-American, Latino, or Bosnian institutions and social settings is preferred.
