

Do You Know L.E.O.?

Learning Enhancement Opportunity

LEO is an academic mentorship program providing academic support for Child Welfare Education Project (CWEP) students

Under the supervision of Dr. Monit Cheung, PhD, LCSW (Professor of Social Work, mcheung@uh.edu), a Social Work Doctoral Student (Shu Zhou, LMSW) will serve as the “LEO Mentor” to current CWEP students to provide consultation in the following areas:

- Research skills
- Résumé polishing
- Paper or presentation preparation
- LMSW exam preparation
- Other academic consultations

Consultation can be provided through either face-to-face meetings or emails to:
LEO Mentor: Shu Zhou, LMSW, at zhoushu0630@gmail.com.

*Since CWEP LEO doesn't provide editing services, you are encouraged to consult the UH Writing Center if you need editorial assistance (FREE service for graduate students by appointment): <http://www.uh.edu/writecen/> (Click at “Student Services” and “Schedule an Appointment for a Writing Consultation” (face-to-face or online)).

*For APA referencing format, go to CWEP website for current students: http://www.uh.edu/socialwork/New_research/cwep/current-students/ (scroll down and click at “APA format for citations”)

Get to know L.E.O.
You'll be glad you did.

An academic mentorship program offered by
Child Welfare Education Project
A Title-IV-E GCSW/CPS Partnership Grant