

Job Title	Education Specialist
Employer/ Agency	United Against Human Trafficking
Job Description	UAHT seeks a passionate and dedicated individual for the full-time Education Specialist position within the Program and Education Department. The Education Specialist is primarily responsible for cultivating education opportunities and delivering UAHT’s trainings for frontline professionals, including first responders, healthcare, and law enforcement. The position will also be responsible for supporting Community Engagement Initiatives to multicultural communities across the greater Houston area. The position reports to the Director of Programs. Responsibilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recruit opportunities and deliver UAHT’s training programs for frontline professionals, including first responders, healthcare providers, and law enforcement. • Continue development and update existing Education Programs, such as the Education, Healthcare and Social Services Training programs, taking into account promising practices in education and outreach for anti-human trafficking. • Recruit opportunities to deliver the hallmark program Human Trafficking 101 to community groups and organizations across the Houston metropolitan area. • Assist Education & Program staff in the presentation/curriculum development of the Human Trafficking 101 and eLearning programs. • Facilitate Educational Consultation Requests for academic and student research projects. • Coordinate the Speaker Request process, which includes scheduling training and education program events or academic consultations. • Gather data to help support the evaluation of education services. • Provide support to the Director of Programs in supervision over the work of UAHT intern(s) that will assist in various aspects of training, presentation programs, program evaluation, and education activities. • Represent UAHT through the participation in media interviews as needed. • Participate in community meetings to better enhance education efforts.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assist UAHT staff with special projects on an as needed basis. • Maintain a working knowledge of significant developments and trends in the field.
Qualifications	Education: Bachelor’s degree from an accredited university is required. Concentrations in cultural studies, communication, nonprofit, public health, and social work are a plus. Qualifications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minimum 2 years of professional experience in the nonprofit sector and/or social services. • Communication skills and experience in public speaking. • Strong organizational skills to recruit, coordinate, and execute education events. • Proficient computer skills to operate programs (Microsoft Office Suite and PowerPoint). • Basic knowledge of human trafficking. • Demonstrate cultural-competency skills with diverse, immigrant and refugee communities required. • Proven ability to work as a team-player while maintaining positive working relationships. • Valid driver’s license, auto insurance, and reliable personal transportation. Additional Qualifications: Spanish and/or foreign language skills strongly preferred. Bilingual reading/writing skills, recruiting, community organization, and facilitating presentations/support groups are a major plus. Curriculum creation, program design, research skills, and knowledge of presentation software such as Prezi are a plus.
Salary/Hours	$32,000 – 38,000
Address	6671 Southwest Freeway
City, State, Zip	Houston, TX 77074
Contact Person	Jenna Cooper
Contact Title	Director of Programs
Telephone Number	713-874-0290
Fax Number

Email Address	HR@uaht.org
Application Method	Email Resume to hr@uaht.org
Opening Date	8/2019

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.