

Job Title	Policy & Advocacy Director – Health Care
Employer/ Agency	Young Invincibles
Job Description	Young Invincible’s Policy department is seeking a Policy & Advocacy Director for Health Policy to serve as the organization’s health care policy expert- leading overall strategy and positioning on these issues. The Young Invincibles national and regional health policy agendas are developed to improve people’s health in the following areas: Young Adult Health Insurance Coverage Access & Affordability; Mental Health Supports for young adults; Women’s health. This position will be responsible for developing YI’s health care policy agenda, including setting the agenda at the federal level and working with YI’s regional directors to develop state policy priorities that further organizational goals. He/she/they will lead government affairs strategy and help develop advocacy campaigns with an eye towards advancing YI’s health care policy agenda at the federal level and supporting YI’s state-level advocacy efforts. He/she/they will also build critical relationships with stakeholders for YI to advance policy values and priorities pertaining to young adults in the area of health care. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop the organization’s health care policy agenda and support advocacy strategies to move those policies forward. • Lead policy development on health care issues. Assist with data analysis and research projects and author policy reports, issue briefs, and fact sheets that analyze health care policy issues affecting young adults. • Manage day-to-day government affairs on health care issues for the policy department, including rapid response analysis of bills and policy proposals. Build and maintain relationships with Congressional staff, administrative staff, and other policymakers, and represent YI in Hill meetings and communications to advance our policy agenda. • Support efforts to coordinate health care policy and advocacy efforts/campaigns across YI’s regions. Work with YI Regional Directors to ensure alignment on organizational health care positions and policy goals. • Represent the organization at external events and media, including coalition meetings and official statements, to foster our external relationships and collaborate strategically with partners. • Support the development of health care issue advocacy trainings and consumer education materials. • Contribute to the development of healthcare-related fundraising proposals and execute on and track federal health care policy grant deliverables as necessary. • Provide project management oversight as it relates to national health care initiatives • Supervise a team of staff, fellows, and interns, with the potential to manage additional staff members in the future. • Other duties as assigned by the supervisor
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 6+ years of experience of relevant federal health care policy and legislative advocacy • Demonstrated experience building productive relationships with key stakeholders Excellent analytical skills with the ability to think critically and write effectively. • Experience managing projects with multiple teams and competing priorities

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Capitol Hill experience, particularly committee experience, is preferred. Should have existing relationships with health care policy stakeholders, including Hill staff
Salary/Hours	$103,000 Full-Time
City, State, Zip	Washington DC
Application Method	https://workforcenow.adp.com/mascsr/default/mdf/recruitment/recruitment.html?cid=f558863d-75bd-4729-9a00-389804671479&ccId=19000101_000002&type=MP&locale=en_US
Opening Date	Immediately

To post a job opportunity or if your response to this job posting results in successful employment, please email the GCSW Office of Alumni and Career Services at mswjobs@central.uh.edu with the hiring details of your new job opportunity. Thank you.