

NASW/TEXAS STUDENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

About the Institute:

The purpose of the Student Leadership Institute (Institute) is to provide you with knowledge and skills about key elements of leadership that will be helpful in your social work career. The Institute is comprised of four sessions. Session #1 and #2 are available online (self-paced). Sessions 3 & 4 are webinars that will last 1.5 hours from 6:00 – 7:30pm.

Sessions are

- Free for members (student membership is $57.00 per year)
- $20 each for non-members (session #1 is free for everyone). Go to www.socialworkers.org to learn more about membership
- Sign up at <http://studentleadershipins.eventbrite.com/> (Membership # or credit card needed).

To obtain the leadership certificate

- Students will complete 4 sessions & Quizzes
- Participate in at least one Discussion Board
- Create a Leadership Development Plan

Session #1 Leadership 101

Lynn Jackson, PhD, LCSW, ACSW

Learn the 7 core values of the social change model of leadership. (Online)

Session #2 Be the Leader Others Want to Follow

Nicole Willis, PhD, LMSW

Learn to be a positive role model and how to represent yourself professionally. (Online)

Session #3 Professional Communication

Miriam Nisenbaum, LMSW, ACSW

Learn to communicate professionally, ask for help, and how to deal with confidentiality concerns. (February 7, 2018)

Session #4 Ethical Leadership

Michael Gianotti, LMSW-IPR, ACSW

Learn about integrity in leadership & how to handle conflicts and problem-solving in an ethical manner. (March 8, 2018)

Contact Lynn.Jackson@tcu.edu with questions