College of Engineering students are allowed a maximum of two attempts for any engineering course offered at the University of Houston or an equivalent engineering course offered at another university or college.

General Petition Deadline (no change)

The College of Engineering is committed to making a quality undergraduate program available to its students. In order to allow engineering majors to enroll in engineering courses, the College strictly enforces a deadline for the submission of general petitions requesting a change of major or readmission to the College. Petitions submitted after the deadline are considered for the next semester. The deadlines for each semester follow.
