Course Description

A minimum of fourteen weeks of supervised full-time internship experience in either the profit or non-profit sector of sport management. Students shall be placed in a sport organization within a defined sport industry segment relative to their career goals and interests. Prerequisites include: consultation with Sport Administration academic advisor, approval of the Sport Administration internship coordinator, cumulative GPA of a least 2.30, declared Kinesiology: Sport Administration as the major course of study, and in the final semester of school.

Course Overview

The Sport Administration Internship Coordinator is responsible for advising and directing interns into positions within a wide variety of sport industry segments including but not limited to: professional sport organizations, national sport governing bodies, intercollegiate athletic departments, collegiate associations and conferences, sport marketing and promotion agencies, sport federations and commissions, facility and event management companies, regional and national sport events, or with various other sport organizations. Each internship is an intensive on-the-job learning experience with a sport organization that is arranged for a minimum of 600 hours over the semester.

Course Requirements

1. 600 hours of work experience with the internship organization.
2. Department and supervisor information sheet and directions to the organization.
3. Weekly logs of hours and experiences.
4. Midterm and final evaluations of the student by the supervisor.
5. Organization and supervisor evaluations by the student.
6. Internship portfolio.
7. Internship presentation.
8. Site visit by coordinator.

Policy for Late or Missing Work

Students are expected to have all assignments completed on the announced dates and times. NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Students with Disabilities

The Center for Students with Disabilities provides academic support services for all UH students who have any type of health impairment, learning disability, physical disability, or psychiatric disorder. Individuals wishing to find out more about these services should contact CSD in Room 305 of the Student Service Center (or call 743-5400/voice 749-1527/TDD). Students requesting reasonable and necessary accommodations for this course (including testing modifications) should contact the instructor as soon as possible (but prior to a deadline).

Academic Honesty

Students are expected to abide by the university's academic honesty policy in all matters concerning this course. (<http://www.uh.edu/dos/hdbk/acad/achonpol.html>). In particular, plagiarism, "Representing as one's own work the work of another without acknowledging the source," whether intentional or unintentional, will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty on any assignment will result in a zero grade for that assignment or for the course depending on the severity of the infraction.

Course Communications

By University of Houston policy all students must have activated their campus e-mail address. Course communications may be done either through WebCT or through the PeopleSoft roster. Checking either source daily will ensure the student does not miss necessary information not given during class time. Students may also contact the instructor using their personal e-mail address. Please provide a salutation and your name with every communication.
