RE: Proposal for Changes in the Political Science: Dropping Courses and One Name Change

Background:

The Political Science Department Undergraduate Committee reviewed courses in current UH catalog and the Political Science course inventory discussing revisions for both clarity and effectiveness. The following recommendations were approved by the committee and endorsed by the faculty.

Actions:

1. Delete the following courses due to the obsolescence, redundancy of material in other courses, or lack of interest in material in today's political climate:

POLS 1394 Selected Topics in US and Texas Constitution
POLS 1395 Selected Topics in U.S. Government: the Congress, the President and the Courts
POLS 3321 Revolution and System Change
POLS 3327 Political Geography of Russian and the Commonwealth
POLS 3332 Soviet and Russia Foreign Policy
POLS 3334 World Order
POLS 3338 French Politics
POLS 3351 Politics and Administrative Responsibility
POLS 3352 Comparative Administration
POLS 3373 Poverty and American Public Policy
POLS 3374 Regulatory Processes
POLS 3377 Politics of Prosperity
POLS 3379 Decision Making
POLS 4310 Foundations of Law and Politics
POLS 4315 Telecommunications History and Policy
POLS 4320 Japanese Politics
POLS 4321 Democracy in Asia
POLS 4336 Mediterranean Politics
POLS 4361 Civil War Politics

~~2. Name change:~~

~~POLS 3372 Latino Politics (former name Chicano Politics). Course description reflects the new designation. No other changes in this course.~~
