DEPARTMENT OF HISPANIC STUDIES

APPROVED MAR 21 2012

To: Dr. Sarah Fishman, Associate Dean for Undergraduate Studies, CLASS
From: Manuel J. Gutiérrez, Professor of Spanish Linguistics, DHS
Subject: Course requirement for Spanish Majors
Date: 10/24/11

RECEIVED JAN 02 2012

We would like to inform you that we have decided to discontinue SPAN 3305 as a requirement for the major in Spanish. We have submitted a CBM Form proposing a new course, SPAN 3306: Introduction to the Study of Spanish Language; we will use this new course as a requirement for the major in Spanish.

If we need to complete any other form or if you need any other information, please let me know.

Thanks for your attention to this matter.

Spanish Major

Director: Dr. Manuel J. Gutiérrez

In addition to completing the degree requirements for the Bachelor of Arts, students majoring in Spanish must complete 27 semester hours in Spanish at the advanced level (3000-4000). Spanish majors must take a minimum 15 credit hours in residence with the Department of Hispanic Studies, not including credit by exam or study abroad. Advanced-level courses must include the following:

1. SPAN 3301 (or 3307 for students on the heritage track)
2. SPAN 3302 (or 3308 for students on the heritage track)
3. SPAN 3305: Spanish Grammar Review
4. SPAN 3384: Introduction to Hispanic Literature
5. Fifteen hours from one or more of the following areas, including six hours at the 4000 level: Literature, Linguistics, Culture, Applied Spanish (business, education, translation, etc.)
6. At least 2302-level proficiency in a second foreign language is required. This requirement will be waived for Spanish majors who complete a second major. This includes PB students who decide to pursue a second bachelor's degree in Spanish.
