E. The Committee shall have an Executive Committee.

- 1. The Chair of the Executive Committee shall be the Chair of the Committee. The other members shall be the Chair Elect of the Committee and the chairs of the Committee's subcommittees.
- 2. The Executive Committee may meet as needed at the discretion of the Chair and report if any meeting held at the next regular UC meeting for the purpose of the minutes.

- F. The Committee may have ad hoc subcommittees as necessary to consider matters clearly not the responsibility of a subcommittee or the Executive Committee. No ad hoc subcommittee shall continue beyond the term of the Chair appointing it.
- G. Each year the Chair will appoint a Nominating Subcommittee that will facilitate the nomination and election of the next Chair Elect.
1. Every year at its first regular meeting in March, the Chair shall appoint a Nominating Subcommittee with the approval of the Committee.
 2. The Nominating Subcommittee shall be made up of four members of the Committee, at least three of whom shall be faculty.
 3. The Nominating Subcommittee will:
 - a. be responsible for nominations of Chair Elect.
 - b. prepare and certify the election of the Chair Elect.
 - c. at the Committee's regularly scheduled meeting in April, shall nominate eligible members of the Committee to be Chair Elect of the Committee for the next academic year.
 4. Action by this Nominating Subcommittee shall not preclude individual members of the Committee from making additional nominations at the regular April meeting of the Committee.

MEETINGS

- A. The Committee shall hold regular meetings at least four times each fall and spring semester and if necessary during the summer.
1. The first regular meeting each fall and spring shall take place during either the first or second week of classes. The agenda of the first fall meeting will include instructions regarding procedures for reviewing and approving proposals.
 2. The Chair shall announce in writing the dates of the semester's other regular meetings no later than the first regular meeting each semester and the date of the regular summer meeting(s) no later than the first regular meeting of the spring.
 3. During the fall and spring semesters, regular meetings shall be held on Wednesdays from three until five o' clock in the afternoon.

4. At least forty-eight hours in advance, the Chair shall notify the members of the Committee in writing where each regular meeting is to be held. In the absence of such notification, a meeting shall be considered to be special rather than regular (see Section V.B).

B. The Committee shall hold special meetings upon the call of the Chair or upon a written petition of at least five members. The Chair or members who call the meeting shall notify the members of the Committee where and when it is to be held at least twenty-four hours before it begins. If possible, special meetings shall be held on Wednesdays at three o' clock in the afternoon.

C. At regular and special meetings of the Committee, a quorum will be established when at least half of voting Faculty members of the Committee are present.

D. Upon request of at least three of its members present and voting, the Committee shall postpone consideration of any proposal unless a spokesperson for the proposal is present.

E. No changes to either the Undergraduate Curriculum of the University of Houston or the undergraduate admissions requirements shall become effective during the academic year following their adoption by the Committee, unless said changes have been received in writing for review by the Committee on or before March 1 except with the consent of at least two-thirds of the members present and voting at a regular or special meeting of the Committee.

F. Except where the bylaws provide otherwise, all elections and matters voted upon shall be determined by a majority of those voting.

AMENDMENTS

A. These bylaws may be amended at a regular or special meeting of the Committee by a two-thirds vote of elected members present. A written notice of the amendment in the exact form in which it will be finally adopted shall have been distributed to the members of the Committee at least five days in advance of the meeting.

B. Unless it specifies otherwise, an amendment shall become effective immediately upon its adoption.

ADOPTION

The Committee's bylaws shall become effective when approved by two-thirds of the voting members of the Committee, a majority approval by the Faculty Senate Governance Committee and final approval of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee.
